Dear Sir:

Cambridge and Charlestown were like twin sisters. Each had a lot of wide open spaces. Three hundred years more less both were reduce to their present size.

Cambridge is "The Mother Town" of Arlington, Billerica, Brighton and Lexington.

Charlestown is "The Mother Town" of Burlington, Somerville, Stoneham and Woburn.

There is much to be considered. Regional sections such as schools and etc. are out of order. Survival as you are. Or unite with the surrounding area.

But with whom ? ? ?

(over)

1. Charlestown into Boston?
 2. Somerville with Cambridge?
 3. Cambridge & Somerville as part of Charlestown?
- Perhap ~~#2~~ is more logical?
- Answer to these problems shall be decided by "the City Council."
- Would like to know the out come of it all ~~###~~. Hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours,
Arthur Brooks
