Dear Sir:

At a meeting of our Board of Directors held today, it was voted to convey to the members of the City Council the profound sorrow of the directors of our Association at the death of their President, John J. McCarthy.

We deeply regret the passing of one whom we considered an able, conscientious and trustmorthy public official, whose courtesy and consideration in all his dealings with us had justly earned our highest regard.

We ask you to kindly transmit this letter to the City Council.

Sincerely
