

CAMBRIDGE, January 2 190

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

Respectfully represents That Timothy J. Concoran of #21 Putnam Ave. Cambridge was injured that on the twenty eight day of Nov. A. D. 190 he was in the employ of the City of Cambridge in the Police Department as a Patrolman, and was then engaged at work at or near Holyoke Street, and while in the performance of his duties, without any fault on his part, sustained injuries by a fracture of the nose While in the act of making an arrest (Here state in full how, and the person or thing by whom you were injured, and in what part of your person you were injured.)
While arresting one John Crosby of Cambridge He struck me a vicious blow on the nose fracturing it causing a great loss of blood that by reason of said injuries he has been unable to perform any duties as such required from the time of his injury to and including Nov. twenty eight to Dec. 26th a period of twenty seven working days, and, during all this time, he did not work, solely because of his inability so to do by reason of these injuries; that his inability so to work has not been increased or extended because of any other independent prior injury, ailment or disease known to him, or by reason of any act or negligence on his part; that he returned to his work the twenty six day of December, A. D. 190

He hereby agrees to give full and complete information to the City Solicitor, City Physician, and all other agents sent him in behalf of the City, of all the facts and circumstances relating to or in any way affecting said injury, and his present, past and future condition of the body and health.

Wherefore he prays for a continuance of pay during the time of disability as aforesaid.

Timothy J. Concoran
