WHEREAS: On Wednesday, October 17, 2001 a public event will be held at the Cambridge Senior Center at 806 Massachusetts Avenue commemorating October as National Disabilities Employment Awareness Month; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities is the sponsor of this annual public event and invites the citizenry of Cambridge to attend this celebration and educational forum called "Mentoring: A Bridge to Opportunity", and

WHEREAS: Since its inception the Commission has provided information, referral, guidance, coordination, and technical assistance to other public agencies and private persons, organizations and institutions engaged in activities and programs intended to eliminate prejudice and discrimination against persons with disabilities; and

WHEREAS: The Commission has educated Cambridge businesses and other public and private sector institutions and organizations about the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, prompting the public and private sectors to work together toward the full integration of persons with disabilities into the Cambridge community; and

WHEREAS: This forum will explain mentoring partnerships and encourage the mentoring of employees with disabilities in the workplace through a panel presentation of experienced individuals that will explain options to employees and employers in attendance; and

WHEREAS: The celebration will also offer attendees refreshments and some music from Tunefoolery Concert Ensembles, an organization that promotes musical expression for people with psychiatric disabilities, during this event that runs from 5:00 p.m. until 7:30 p.m.; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council encourage Cambridge employees and Cambridge employers and the general public to attend this important event to learn and to share their own experiences that will further our understanding about the value of mentoring for our workplace colleagues with disabilities to maximize our opportunity to be fully integrated in the workplaces of Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: The City Council goes on record to thank the Cambridge Commission for Persons with Disabilities, the Cambridge Employees Committee on Diversity, and the Cambridge Department of Human Service Programs for their annual efforts to celebrate National Disabilities Employment Awareness Month and to promote the benefits of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 by presenting this October 17th Event, "Mentoring: A Bridge to Opportunity" for the benefit of the Cambridge community.
